Poems, Prayers & Promises

I've been lately thinking about my life's time
All the things I've done, how it's been.
I can't help believing in my own mind,
I know I'm going to hate to see it end.
Seen a lot of sunshine, slept out in the rain.
Spent a night or two all on my own.
I know my lady's pleasures, had myself some friends.
Spent some time or two in my home.

I have to say it now; it's been a good life all in all,
It's really fine to have a chance to hang around.
Lie there by the fire and watch the evening tire.
Along with friends, my old lady, sit and pass the pipe around.
Talk of Poems, Prayers & Promises,
Things that we believe in;
How sweet it is to love someone . . .
How right it is to care . . .
How long it's been since yesterday . . .
What about tomorrow . . .
What about our dreams . . .
And all the memories we share.

The days have passed so quickly now, nights are seldom long.
Time around me whispers when it's cold.
Changes somehow frighten me; still I have to smile.
It turns me on to think of growing old.
Though my life's been good to me there's still so much to do,
So many things my mind has never known.
I'd like to raise a family; like to sail away,
Dance across the mountains on the moon.

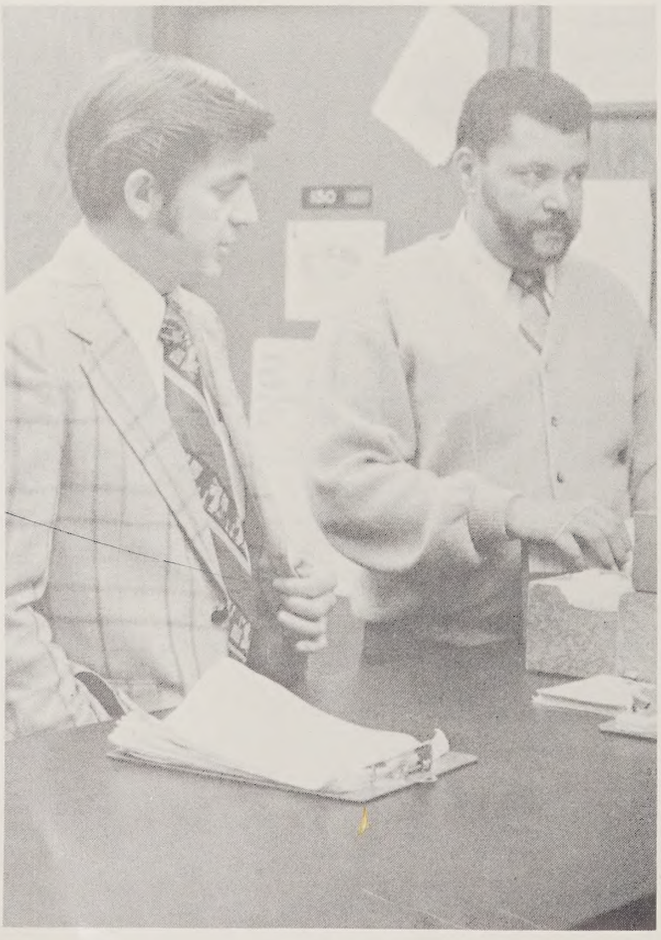
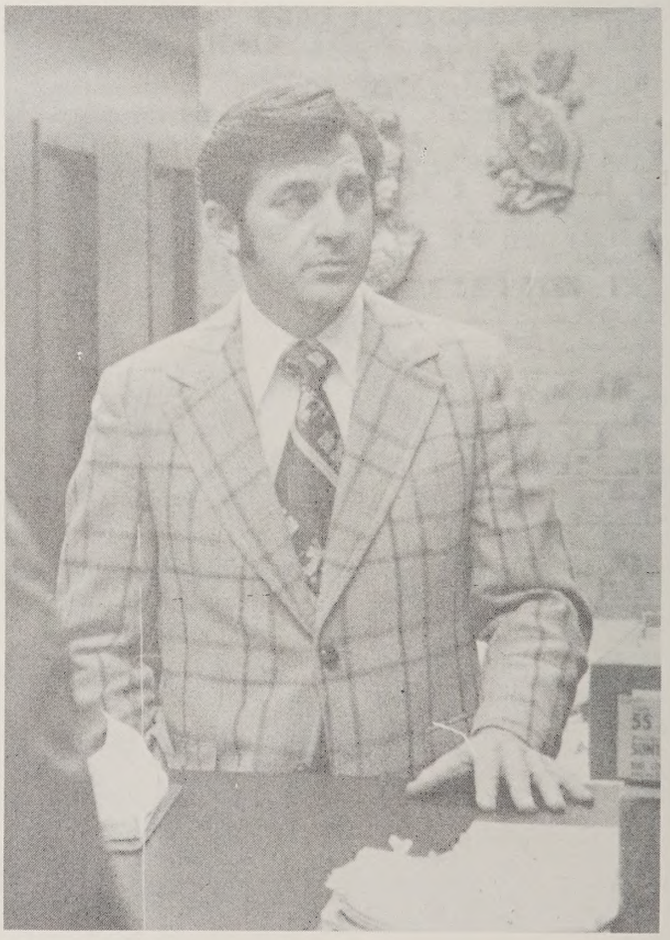
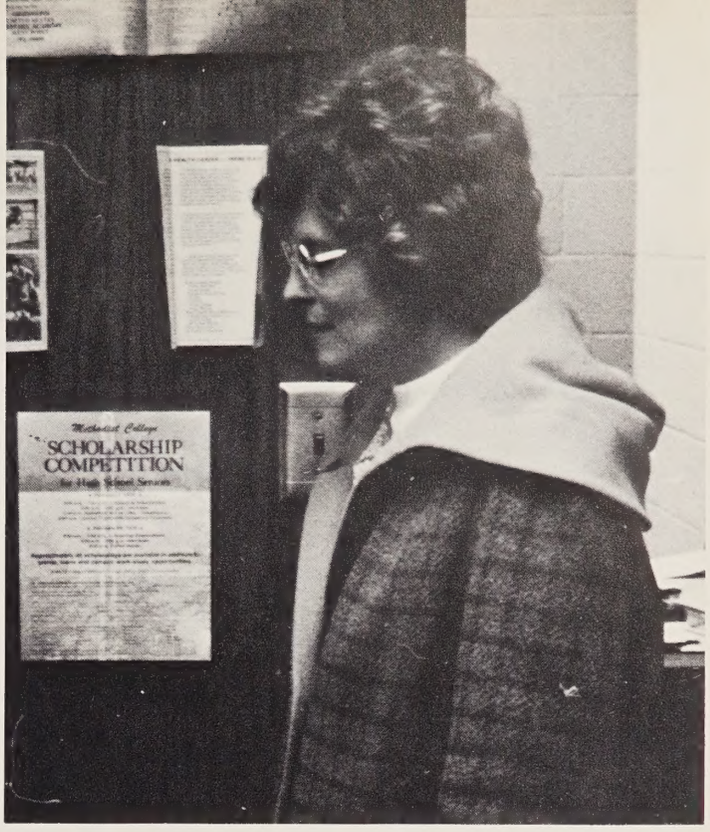
"Those Were The Years"

1976 . . . the year of nostalgia. My mind slips back . . . not two hundred years but four years . . . to 1972. That was the year . . . the year when the '76 Seniors . . . and I . . . first came to Central . . . new . . . fresh . . . excited . . . about what lay ahead. They have been years of growing pains . . . growing pleasure . . . together. That was the year . . . we looked forward to '73 . . . to the year when we would move to the "new school" . . . dreamed of . . . designed for . . . planned by . . . students . . . teachers . . . the Central Community. 1973 . . . that was the year . . . we walked upon carpeted floors . . . and stood in awe of such splendor. Not only was the building new . . . and exciting. New courses . . . a curriculum dreamed of . . . designed for . . . planned by . . . students and teachers. Time slipped by . . . now the Seniors of '76 will move on . . . but I will stay . . . to work . . . and move forward . . . with those who remain . . . and are yet to come. So to the Seniors I say . . . goodbye . . . good luck . . . good life . . . but remember . . . "Those Were the Years."





Mrs. Marie Michael — Secretary. Mrs. Michael is a person that everyone admires. If the students worked as hard as she the entire school would be made up of A honor students. She is liked for her charm and cheerful smile.



Mrs. Hilda Forrest — Guidance Counselor. Those who don't come in contact with Mrs. Forrest are few. As Guidance Counselor she leads us through problems we have with our daily school life and helps college prep students prepare for their college life.

Mr. Clayton Swicegood — Assistant Principal. Mr. Swicegood is one of the most outstanding men at Central. He has the difficult job of working out the master schedule. A hard worker and curteous person, Mr. Swicegood, is a favorite with both students and teachers.

Mr. Theodore R. Holmes, Jr. — Assistant Principal. Mr. Holmes has the ever present job of keeping up with absentees and bus drivers, along with numerous other chores. A man of fine stature and personality his presence is certainly noticed at Central.

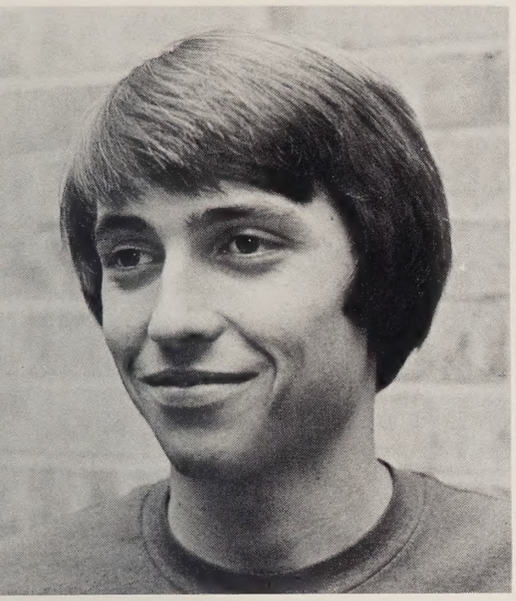
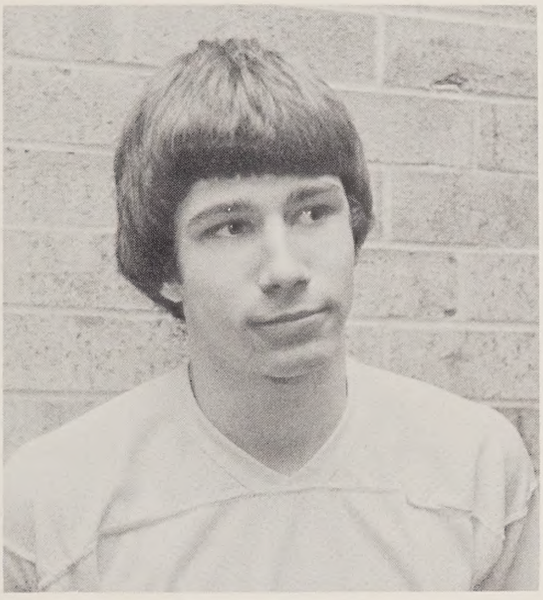
Seventeen Outstanding Seniors



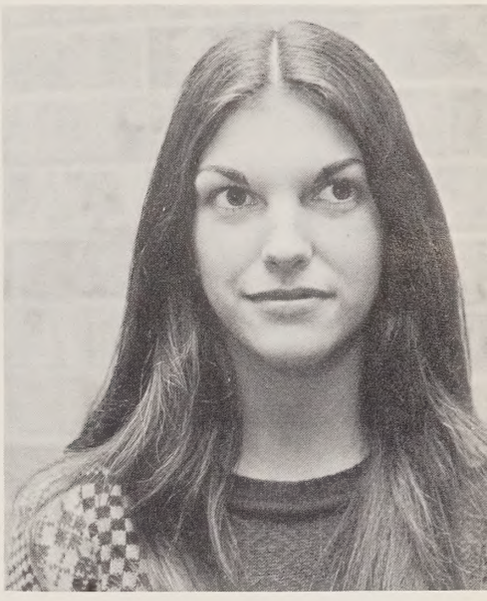
1. Ricky Allred

1. As vice president of the Junior Class, a Junior Marshal, and president of the Senior Class, Ricky has served his fellow students and teachers very well. He is also, a member of NHS, NCS, and the Varsity Basketball team. He plans to attend UNC-Chapel Hill.



2. Eddie Carrick

2. Eddie is a very active student in many aspects. He has excelled in sports as well as in academics. He is a member of the NHS, Quill and Scroll, annual staff, Monogram Club and Chorus. He served as captain of the Hi I.Q. team and Soph. class vice president. In the field of sports, Eddie is on the teams for football, basketball and track. He plans to attend UNC-Chapel Hill.



3. Peggy Harrison

3. Serving as a homeroom representative, class treasurer, and student government secretary-treasurer (two terms), Peggy has certainly contributed greatly to the executive department of our school. She was also our representative in the Miss Davidson County, and the Winter Sports Queen contests. Peggy plans to further her education at Davidson County Community College.

4. Amy Hedrick

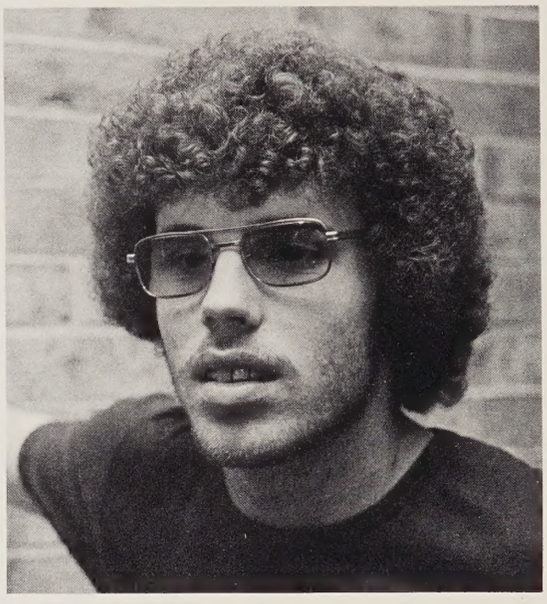
4. Amy has been very active in many of the clubs at Central. She is a member of FTA, Junior Civinettes, Quill and Scroll, Pep Club, Monogram Club and FCA. She is on the executive board of the Senior class serving as secretary. Amy also plays basketball with our girls varsity team. She plans to attend Appalachian State or Western Carolina.

5. Tammy Hedrick

5. Tammy is a member of the Pep Club, FBLA, FCA, FTA, Monogram Club, FHA, Quill and Scroll and the annual staff. She has also participated in the band, on the girls' track and the girls' varsity basketball team. She is this year's Student-Government vice president. Tammy plans to further her education at DCCC.

Are Chosen By The Faculty

1. Pam Kepley



2. Garry Koontz

3. Teresa McBride

4. Robyn Miller

5. Jenny Mills

6. Eve Nelson

1. Pam, a new student at Central this year has been recognized as an outstanding person all ready. Here at Central she is a member of NHS, Chorus and a guidance assistant. Before moving to the U.S. from England, Pam played on her school's hockey team. She plans to further her education at UNC-Chapel Hill.

2. Being a homeroom representative and the Sophomore class president must have given Garry good experience for the fine job he has done as the 1975-1976 Student Government President. He is a member of the NCS, NHS and the Monogram Club. As a sportsman Garry has been on the football, basketball, and baseball teams. He plans to attend UNC-Chapel Hill.

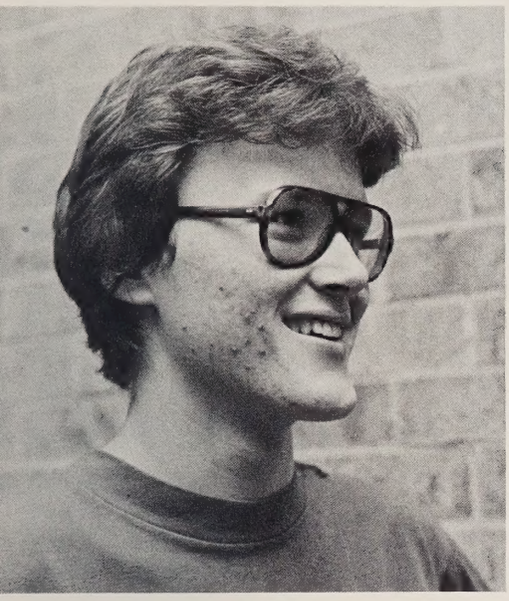
3. Teresa, has been a very active participant in many school activities. She is a member of FBLA, FHA, FTA, Pep Club, Junior Civinettes and National Honor Society. She also served as a VICA — district officer, Junior Marshal and a prom waitress.

4. The great interest Robyn has shown in Central makes her an outstanding candidate for Who's Who. She is a member of the National Honor Society and active member of the Pep Club. A majorette for two years, she is a loyal sports fan. She has performed in several plays given by the drama club. She served as co-editor for the annual. She has played basketball, been a member of FTA, FCA, and the Quill and Scroll. She plans to attend UNC-Chapel Hill.

5. Jenny, has participated on the basketball, softball, track, volleyball and powder puff football teams throughout her four years at Central. Not stopping at sports, she is a member of the Drama Club, chorus, newspaper, Quill and Scroll, Pep Club, and FHA. Jenny also finds time to serve as Senior class treasurer. She plans to further her education at Appalachian State University.

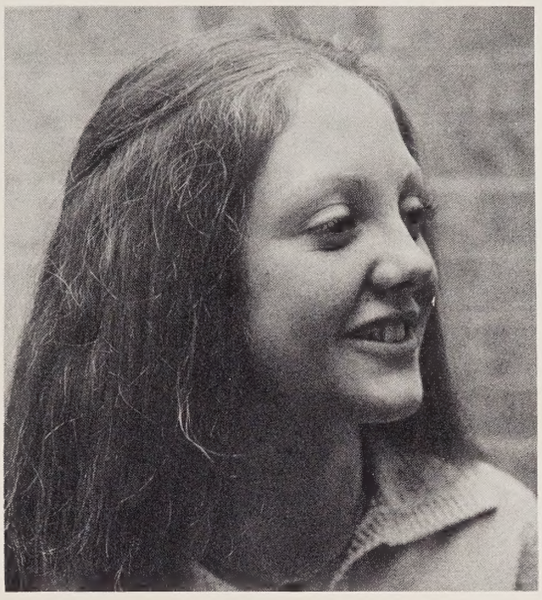
6. Eve, a very involved student at Central has done a fine job as Student Government Reporter, vice president of the Jr. Civinettes, president and secretary of the Pep Club and secretary of the Quill and Scroll. Eve is on the school newspaper staff and has been a member of the school's marching band. She plans to further her education at Elon College where she will major in medical technology.

For The 1976 Who's Who



1. Robbin Saunders

1. Robbin is a member of the band, Pep Club, and the Monogram Club. He is on the Hi I.Q. team and a Senior Homeroom Guidance Assistant. He has strived to achieve high academic standing during his four years in order to attend Wake Forest University and later medical school.



2. Patricia Smith

2. Patricia has been selected to Who's Who this year as a result of her high academic achievements and participation in school activities. She is a member of the Quill and Scroll, National Honor Society, annual staff, Hi I.Q. team and Pep Club. She was also a Junior Marshal. Patricia plans to attend DCCC or UNC-Chapel Hill.

3. Sally Stokes

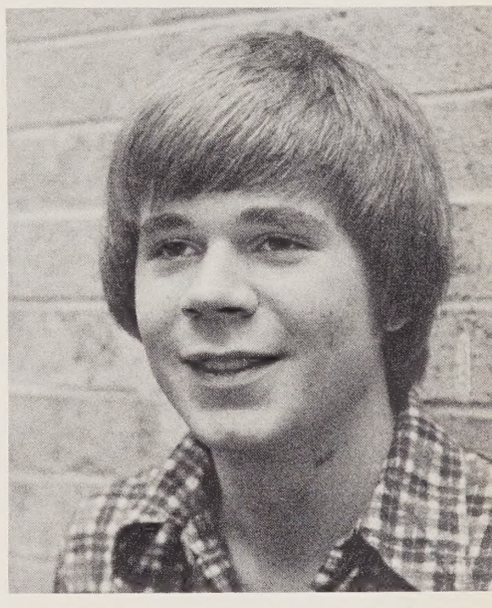
3. Sally, a member of the Pep Club, National Honor Society, Drama Club, Chorus, and Junior Civinettes has served her school and fellow students very well. During her four years Sally has maintained a high scholastic standing. She was also a Junior Marshal. Sally plans to attend N.C. State University.

4. Phil Styers

4. An active participant in all school affairs. Phill has worked on the school newspaper as co-editor and is a member of the Quill and Scroll. He is vice president of the National Honor Society and was a Junior Marshal. Phil has been chosen to be a member of this year's Hi I.Q. team. He plans to further his education at UNC-Chapel Hill or St. Andrew's Presbyterian College.

5. Beth Thacker

5. Beth, a most versatile person has always achieved excellence at Central. As a sport figure, Beth has been a member of the track team, J.V. and Varsity basketball teams, band and the volleyball team. She served as president of the National Honor Society, member of the Pep Club, Monogram Club, chief marshal, and a member of the Hi I.Q. team. Beth plans to attend Davidson College.



6. Jimmy Young

6. Being drum major for the band, Jimmy has high stepped his way to many other achievements and awards here at Central. He has been a member of the band, NHS, Pep Club, Monogram Club, Drama Club, Hi I.Q. team, and a junior marshal. He has been actively engaged in drama work both at Central and in the community theater. He plans to further his education at UNC-Chapel Hill.

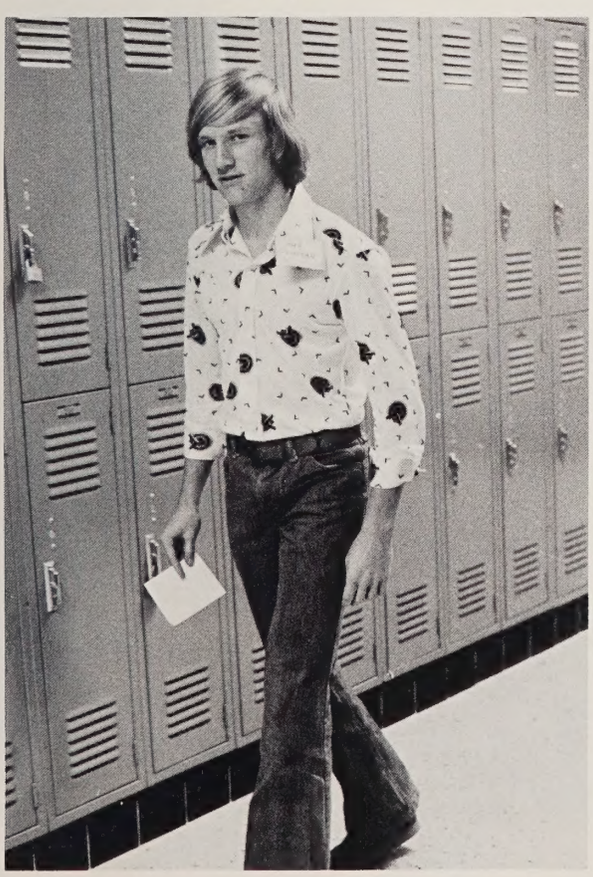
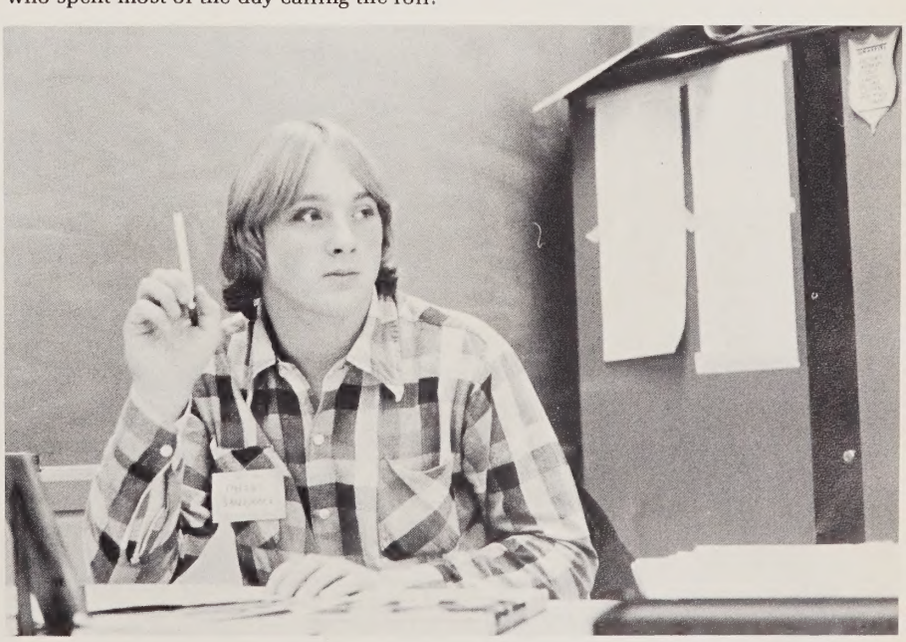
Freshman Initiation is a good way for a freshman to become a Spartan. Punishment sometimes can be severe, although most of the freshman survive.

Jimmy Everhart enjoys the daily duties as Mrs. Inman on teacher turn-around day.



The teacher for Miss Sandrock's classes on teacher turn-around day was Mike Medlin, who spent most of the day calling the roll.



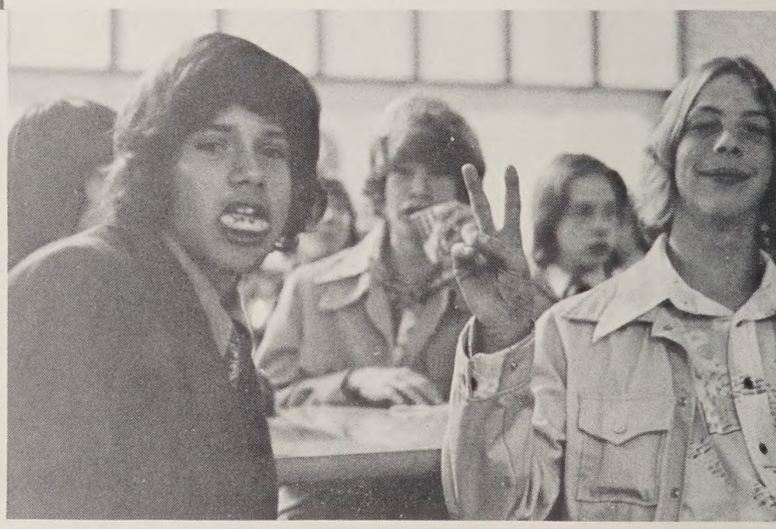
CHRISTMAS DANCE DECEMBER 13, 1975 8:00 p.m. — 12:00 p.m. Lou Curry Band

Mr. Thomas and Mrs. Crotts have an evening of collecting money and chaperoning.

All the friends get together and talk over everything.

"Dance with me, I want to be your partner."

Stu Koontz shows us how not to eat.



The Lou Curry Band performs.

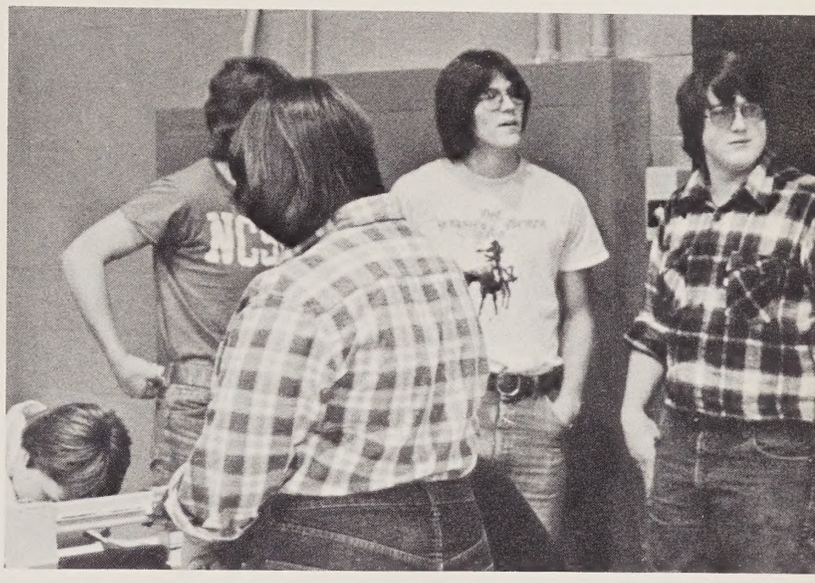
Miss Jamie Black is chosen as Davidson County's FFA Sweetheart from Central's Chapter.

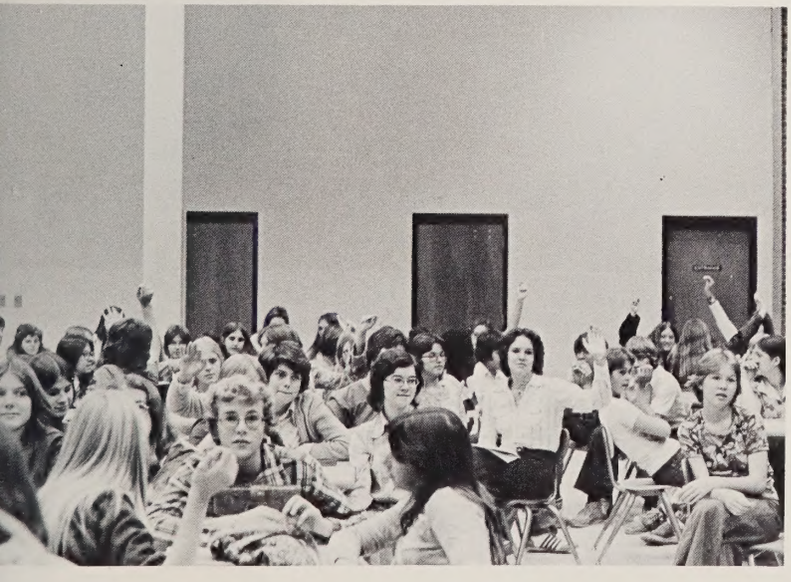
Why didn't somebody bring some mistletoe.

When Mrs. Foust speaks, everybody listens.

The Bridge Over the River Kwai will never be the same.



Seniors wait patiently to give their "Bad Blood."



Our clubs do it the Democratic way.

We've got to make some changes around here.
